KEY FEATURES:

- 95% Repeat business.
- Diverse clientele: Company sells to many types of markets, businesses and individuals, which helped the company weather the recession. It also means the clients are not all on the same schedule, which helps with managing workloads.
- Predictable cycles: Over the decade's the company can tell almost to the day what kind of gross income they'll be looking at. That helps to prepare (via cash flow analysis and historicals) for what is coming. It also allows company to advertise to boost slower periods and try to push business (to the degree possible) out of the busiest periods.
